A Real Ticket to Work Success Story!

Meet Robert

- Robert is a veteran who spent seven years serving in the U.S. Army. After a surgery mishap in 2000, he sustained a spinal cord injury that left him with limited mobility.
- Ticket to Work helped Robert discover his passion for helping other veterans navigate the transition back into civilian life.

When You're Ready to Work

- Gathering information and resources is key to planning your journey toward employment.
- Ticket to Work and Work Incentives can help make your journey a smooth one.

Ticket to Work: The Three Most Common Myths

#3

If I go to work and then have to stop working, I will have to reapply for benefits all over again. It took me forever to be approved for benefits and I cannot afford to have to wait that long again so I should not try to work.

Common Work Incentives

Trial Work Period (TWP) (SSDI recipients only)	The TWP allows you to test your ability to work for at least nine months. During your TWP, you will receive full SSDI benefits no matter how much you earn as long as your work activity is reported and you have a disabling impairment.
Extended Period of Eligibility (EPE) (SSDI recipients only)	During the 36 months after the Trial Work Period, Social Security may restart your SSDI benefits without a new application, disability determination, or waiting period.
Earned Income Exclusion (EIE) (SSI recipients only)	Less than half of your earnings are counted by Social Security as earned income which may allow you to continue receiving an SSI check while working.
Expedited Reinstatement (EXR) (SSDI and SSI recipients)	If your benefits stopped because of your earnings level, you can request to have your benefits reinstated without having to complete a new application. While Social Security determines if you qualify for benefits reinstatement, you are eligible to receive temporary benefits for up to six months.
Protection from Medical Continuing Disability Reviews (CDR) (SSDI and SSI recipients)	Social Security will postpone a medical continuing disability review (CDR) while you are participating in the Ticket to Work program.

Building Your Employment Team

Contacting an Employment Network

When you're ready to use your Ticket:

- Call the Ticket to Work Help Line at 1-866-968-7842 (V) or 1-866-833-2967 (TTY) to speak with a benefits counselor and request a list of Employment Networks that serve your area.
- Visit www.socialsecurity.gov/work to access a list of Employment Networks near you.

Selecting an Employment Network (EN) to Work with You... Ask Questions!

Questions You May Want to Ask:

- How many people have you helped through the Ticket to Work program?
- What kinds of companies do you work with for job placements?
- What kinds of jobs might be available to me?
- How often will we communicate and meet?

When You Call the EN Office, Remember These Tips

- The EN should explain how the Ticket program works and the services it provides.
- The EN should ask about your work goals and intentions about work.
- The EN should talk with you about any fears you may have.
- You and the EN will develop an Individual Work Plan that includes your employment goals and the services the EN will provide to help you get there.

Helping You Today
So You Succeed Tomorrow

When You Visit the EN Office, Remember These Tips

- Your signature on the Individual Work Plan assigns your Ticket to the EN.
- The EN may have some other routine forms for you to sign allowing it to work with you.
- You can un-assign your Ticket at any time if you change your mind or decide the EN is not a good match.
- Social Security postpones your Continuing Disability Reviews (CDRs) as long as you are making timely progress toward employment.

Helping You Today
So You Succeed Tomorrow

Examples of EN Services

- Resume development and advice on how to fill out a good application
- Interview skills and tips on how to explain long absences from work without disclosing your disability
- Job accommodation information and resources
- Tax incentive information
- Referrals to other resources in your area

Helping You Today
So You Succeed Tomorrow

Examples of EN Services

- Job leads and information on employers who are hiring, job fairs, recruiting events, etc.
- Access to resource centers -- computers, internet, email, phones, and fax machines
- Job development on your behalf
- Referrals to other organizations that can help you
- Continue to provide you services through the Ticket after you are finished working with Vocational Rehabilitation

Ticket to Work and State Vocational Rehabilitation (VR) Agency Services

When you use your Ticket for VR services:

- If you receive Social Security benefits because of your disability, you are automatically eligible for VR services.
- You and your VR counselor develop an employment plan.
- Your Ticket is assigned to your VR when you and your counselor sign your employment plan.
- Social Security will postpone your Continuing Disability Reviews (CDRs) as long as you are making timely progress towards employment.

Helping You Today
So You Succeed Tomorrow

Ticket to Work and State Vocational Rehabilitation (VR) Agency Services

When you begin to work using your Ticket with a state VR agency:

- You and your counselor discuss the opportunity to have an EN provide employment supports when your VR services end.
- When VR “closes” your case, you can use your Ticket with an EN for follow-on employment supports and services.
